

Project Brief

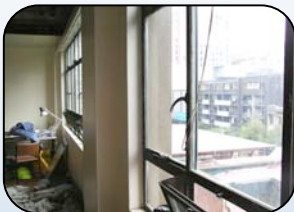

Victoria Street – Chews Lane Column Shear Strengthening

Wellington, NZ
2005

The perimeter columns were wrapped with Tyfo® SEH 51A composite to provide shear reinforcement.

The columns were broadcast with aggregate to provide a key coat and subsequently plastered over. Several columns on the ground floor were re-tiled to match the original aesthetics.

The retrofit was completely unobtrusive.

