

Project Brief

Customhouse Restaurant Wharf Deck Strengthening

Cross Wharf, Dunedin
2006

The Tyfo® 2UC55 Composite laminate strip system was used to restore the original design strength when a construction error resulted in design deficiencies. On this project, the reinforcing steel was inadvertently cut. Other construction error applications can include missing or misplaced rebar, low concrete strength, or inadequate concrete cover.

